
the State, under the new Constitution, will have a majority in the southern district, there seems to be one individual spoken of, that is Judge Smith, of the present residents, who will doubtless be re-elected in the middle district. Judge Blackford and Judge Smith both desire to be elected to the State Convention in February; will have to choose between them; it is true that Judge Blackford has disclaimed the duties of our supreme judges for nearly thirty years; but he is growing old, and of course must soon retire on the decision. Judge McKim has also disclaimed the duties of the station with like ability, as, young man, the full vigor of intellect, has been on the bench for nearly thirty years, and he is now nearly seventy years of age; under all the circumstances he should be retained in the office.

Mr. Stewart, of Cass, and Judge Chalmers are reported to be—Salém (Ind.) Democrat, 21st Inst.

☛ Young Lind will sail for Europe in the Atlas, on the 15th inst. He is not, as reported, waiting for his original intention, until the next day of her departure.
